

Are new drugs included on the PDL?

New drugs will be considered non-preferred until the class is once again reviewed. If a new medication is considered unique and has been classified as a priority drug by the FDA, the State may indicate that this drug is preferred until the class is once again reviewed.